Raymond Eugene Staggs, Plaintiff,

Vs.

Alta Staggs, Defendant.

DECREE OF THE COURT.

On this 23 day of July in the year 1948, this cause coming on regularly to be heard at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho. and the Defendant having failed to demur or answer Plaintiffs Verified complaint on file herein, and the time having elapsed and expired, the default of the Defendant having been had and duly placed of record, and the Plaintiff appearing in court in person and by Attorney of record, and the Defendant failing to appear, either in her own person or by Attorney, and no legal reason existing therefor, the court proceeds to hear said cause, Whereupon the Plaintiff was duly sworn and examined as a Witness in his own behalf, and thereafter Lee Staggs. Was duly sworn and examined as a witness in Plaintiffs cause, whereupon Plaintiff rests, and said cause being submitted to the court for decision, whereupon the court finds that the Plaintiff is and for many years last past has been a resident of the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho. That the said Plaintiff Raymond Eugene Staggs and Alta Staggs the Defendant herein, intermarried at Milo, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 24th day of August, 1942, and ever since have been and now are, Husband and Wife.

That during the time of said marriage and Coverture there were born to them, A Male Child, to-wit; Terry Ray Staggs, who was born, March 16th, 1946.

That prior to the entering of this decree, the Plaintiff and the Defendant entered into a stipulation in writing, wherein it was spitulated between them, that in case a decree of divorce was granted in the above entitled case, that the court would enter in its decree that that all personal property of the parties, consisting of one trailer House, and all furniture contained therein, or any other furniture that rightfully belongs to the said parties, shall be decreed to the Defendant; That the Defendant shall be awarded the Care, control and custody of the said Male child, and that the Plaintiff shall pay the sum of $20.00, per month on the first of each and every month for the support, and maintainence of said minor child, the right being reconized that the Plaintiff shall have the right to visit said Minor child, or have him in his posession at such times and places as shall be convenient to the Defendant, and that all costs herein be borne by the Plaintiff.

And it further appearing to the court, that almost continous since the said marriage, the Defendant has been unable to settle herself and take over the burdens of marriage life, the atmosphere discordant and the married state one of turmoil and strife, the incompatibility of the defendant making it impossible to get along together, That when the Plaintiff would come home the Defendant in a state of jealousy would charge the Plaintiff with being out consorting with women, That when the Plaintiff offered to take the Defendant out to places of pleasure, or enjoyment, she would decline, but assume a sour attitude because of it.

That the Plaintiff and the Defendant are not at present living together, and have been living seperate and apart for some months past. That the defendant at times would become enraged and pull the Plaintiffs hair and scratch his face, and kick his shins, that at a recent period he the Plaintiff undertook to deliver some coal to her at her home, but was received in a surly manner by the Defendant and called him a Son of A Bitch.

That the Plaintiff is convinced that said defendant no longer cares for him, and that the attitude and acts of the Defendant have completely destroyed the Legatimate objects of matrimony and that a continuance of the marriage relation between the plaintiff and the Defendant, can only serve to make the Plaintiff unhappy and miserable.

And it farther appearing to the Court that the equities are with the Plaintiff, and that the allegations set forth in Plaintiffs verified Complaint are true, That the Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of Divorce, dissolving the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises-----

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court

Ist, That the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant be, and the same are hereby totally dissolved;

That in accordance with the Stipulation heretofore entered into between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, It is further Ordered and decreed, that the Defendant have one Trailer House, and the Furniture belonging to the same, whether in said trailer House, or otherwise stored; That the Defendant shall have the care, custody and control of the Minor child, Terry Ray Staggs, and that the Plaintiff shall have the right to visit said Minor at times suitable to the Defendant, and that the Plaintiff shall pay on the first of each and every Month, the sum of Thirty $30,00) dollars for the support and maintainance of said Minor child; the Plaintiff shall bear his own costs.

Dated this 23rd day of July 1948.

CHESTER GROSKREUTZ,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PEARL GROSKREUTZ,

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service outside the State of Idaho and within the State of Washington, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, CHESTER GROSKREUTZ, and the defendant, PEARL GROSKREUTZ, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor daughter, PEITRA GROSKREUTZ, is hereby awarded to the Defendant, with the privilege on the part of the Plaintiff of reasonable visitation of said minor daughter at all reasonable times, and the care, custody and control of the minor son, GARY GROSKREUTZ, is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff with the privilege on the part of the Defendant of reasonable visitation of said minor son at all reasonable times.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of July, 1948 and the demurrer of the defendant to the complaint of the plaintiff having been by the defendant withdrawn and that she has refused to plead further to said complaint, and the default of the defendant for so refusing to plead further to said complaint having been duly entered, the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and witnesses in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the his return from the army as alleged in said complaint, and are now living separate and apart from each other; that the defendant has been guilty of treating the plaintiff of the acts of cruelty alleged in said complaint and that such acts on the part of the defendant toward the plaintiff caused him mental anguish and suffering; that there was born as the issue of such marriage one child, a daughter named Gloria Jean Kreps of the age of nine months at the commencement of this action, which daughter is with the defendant and has so been during these proceedings; that prior to the commencement of this action the child of the defendant which was born to the defendant before the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant was legally adopted as the child of said plaintiff and defendant and by such adoption proceeding was given the name of David Kreps and at the commencement of this action was of the age of five years, and which child has during the pendency of this action been under the control and in the custody of the defendant; that the defendant desires to have awarded to her the care and custody of each of said two children and same should be awarded to her herein.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant; and that the two children of the plaintiff and defendant, Gloria Jean Kreps and David Kreps, should be awarded to the defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Clyde E. Kreps, and the defendant, Margaret Kreps, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Margaret Kreps, be and she is hereby awarded the care, custody, and control of the said minor children, Gloria Jean Kreps and David Kreps, but that plaintiff, Clyde E. DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 6th day of August, 1948.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear either in person or by his attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter and thereupon a summons was issued, and it further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor.

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled Court has duly entered the defendant's default and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of her complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true, the Court finds:

That the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, for more than six weeks preceding the filing of the complaint herein; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, on April 26, 1943; that no children have been born of said marriage; that the parties hereto have accumulated some money and an automobile as community property; that they have agreed upon a division of the money and the proceeds from the sale of said automobile and that there is no controversy as to property rights.

That during the married life of the parties hereto the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto are dissolved and set aside and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

Dated this 6th day of August, 1948.

EMMA A. ROSE,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

FREDRIC D. ROSE,

Defendant.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 8th day of September, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, attorney of record for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Fredric D. Rose, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having heretofore filed a demurrer herein and having withdrawn said demurrer and having declined to answer or otherwise further plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the said plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of said defendant, Fredric D. Rose, for his failure to otherwise appear and to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of Emma A. Rose, and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than thirty years next immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that under date of the 1st day of September, 1948, the parties hereto made and entered into a separation agreement which said separation agreement is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

SEPARATION AND PROPERTY DIVISION AGREEMENT

THIS CONTRACT is made on the 1st day of September, 1948, between EMMA A. ROSE, First Party, and FREDRIC D. ROSE, her husband, Second Party, both of Boise, Ada County, Idaho.

I.

The parties to this agreement are husband and wife, having intermarried on the 26th day of November, 1935 at Emmett, Idaho; that said parties have one child born of this marriage, namely: Don Fredric Rose, born July 10, 1937, and have adopted a child of the first party born of a former marriage, namely: Cleland Bruce Ghormley, born August 8, 1932 and adopted by these parties July 9, 1938.

II.

The parties to this agreement have had unhappy marital differences and, as a result, are no longer living together as husband and wife, and it is their mutual wish and desire that their property rights be settled under the terms of this agreement in a cooperative spirit and, further, insofar as they have control thereof and subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of Idaho, said parties wish to agree as to the future custody, care and control of their own and of their adopted son, hereinabove named.

III.

That since their marriage, the parties to this agreement have acquired a certain community interest in improvements and additions made to the following described real property which First Party owned at the time of their marriage. This property is located in Boise, Idaho, Ada County and described as follows, to-wit:

> All of Lots Numbered 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Block Numbered 17 of Dudler Addition, Boise, Idaho, as the same are numbered and designated on the official amended plat of said addition now of record in the office of the Recorder of Ada County, Idaho, and have acquired certain personal property consisting of furniture, tools, a second-hand Chevrolet automobile, Idaho Power Company stock in the amount of $1400.00, United States Savings Bonds which total in maturity value the amount of $1525.00, Savings of $350.00.

IV.

For the purpose of settling their property rights in and to all of said community property, the said parties agree as follows: that Second Party shall have as his own and as his sole and separate property the following community property owned by these parties, to-wit; all Idaho Power Company stock of the value of $1400.00; sufficient of the United States Savings Bonds owned by these parties to equal $950.00, maturity value; all the tools which have been purchased and acquired by Second Party; the Chevrolet automodile now owned by said parties, together with his personal clothing and other personal effects.

And it is further agreed that the First Party shall have as her sole and separate property the above described real property, together with the furniture and fixtures therein, the savings of said parties amounting to $350.00; the remainder of the United States Savings Bonds over and above the $950.00 worth hereinabove given to the Second Party.

V.

It is agreed that the Second Party will give the First Party a Quitclaim Deed covering his community interest in and to the above described real property, and that each of said parties will execute and deliver any and all necessary conveyances, assignments, endorsements and transfers to the other necessary to effect a distribution of this property, as above provided.

VI.

Certain accounts payable have heretofore been delivered to the Second Party which were incurred prior to the separation of these parties, and Second Party agrees to assume and pay all of said obligations except the one owed Carroll's for a coat purchased by First Party which she agrees to assume and pay.

It is agreed that all other bills and obligations incurred by the First Party shall be assumed and paid for by her, and both parties agree that they will not incur any further obligations which may be a charge against the other.

Said parties also have certain life insurance policies on their respective lives, as follows:

Pioneer Mutual Life Insurance Company policy No. 104234, in the amount of $1,000.00, naming Emma A. G. Rose as insured and Fredric D. Rose as beneficiary;

Pioneer Mutual Life Insurance Company Policy No. 50488, in the amount of $1,000.00, naming Emma A. Ghormley Rose as insured and Fredric D. Rose as beneficiary;

Standard Insurance Company Policy No. 106458, in the amount of $2,070.00, naming Fredric D. Rose as insured and Emma A. Rose as beneficiary;

Occidental Life Insurance Company Policy No. 824450, in the amount of $2,000.00, naming Fredric D. Rose as insured and Emma A. Rose as beneficiary;

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company Policy No. 503G1, in the amount of $3,000.00, naming Fredric D. Rose as insured and Emma A. Rose as beneficiary.

and it is agreed that each party shall have as his or her sole and separate property the insurance policies covering his or her life respectively, and the other agrees to execute any necessary instruments that convey such policies to the other, including consent to change of beneficiary.

VIII.

With respect to the custody of the children, it is the wish of First Party and the consent of Second Party that the care, custody and control of both of said children be given to the First Party. It is agreed that for the support and care of the child born to this marriage, namely: Don Fredric Rose, the Second Party will pay to First Party on or before the tenth day of each month, commencing on the 10th day of September, 1948, the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per month for the care of said child during each month the child is in the possession and care of first party until said child reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, or marries, whichever occurs sooner.

Second Party further agrees to pay to the First Party for her care and support, the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per month, on or before the tenth day of each month, commencing on the tenth day of September, 1948, until she remarries, or dies, whichever occurs sooner.

The adopted child, who is the child of First Party by a previous marriage, is now sixteen years of age and it is considered by said parties that it shall not be necessary for the Second Party to pay First Party any amount for his support, and therefore, the parties agree that the Second Party shall have no obligation to pay for his support, and should any Court of competent jurisdiction decree that Second Party was obligated to pay anything for the support of said child, then and in that event, the said parties agree that Second Party shall pay First Party the sum of Thirty ($30.00) Dollars per month for the care of said child, and thereupon the Thirty-($30.00) Dollars per month payment for the support of First Party shall immediately cease.

With reference to the custody of said children, it is agreed that Second Party shall have the right to visit his own child, the said Don Fredric Rose, at any reasonable time upon appointment with the First Party, it being understood that on any of such visits the Second Party shall not molest either the children or the First Party in any manner, and shall visit said child at proper hours. In addition to his right to visit his son during the school terms, as above provided, the Second Party shall have the right to take the child for any part or all of the vacation period between school terms and have the child with him, provided that he has a suitable and proper home to which said child will be taken and cared for; and Second Party must pay the transportation expenses of the child to his home and back to his mother before the beginning of the following school term.

The parties to this agreement particularly agree that neither will, in any manner, attempt to alienate the affections of the child of their marriage or prejudice said child against the other, and should the child become seriously ill or suffer a serious injury, the parent who then has the child shall immediately notify the other.

IX.

The First Party has heretofore filed an action for divorce against Second Party and she agrees to assume and pay her attorney's fees and all costs in said action, and Second Party agrees to pay his attorney's fees and all costs in said action.

Neither of these parties will ever make any claim upon the other, of any kind or nature, dependent upon or growing out of their marital relationship, except in this agreement provided, and each of said parties hereto does waive for himself and herself all rights which he or she may have in the community property of the other as husband and wife, or either, during the lifetime of the parties hereto or at the death of either party; and neither will at any time make claim upon the property of the other except with reference to provisions of this agreement, and at the death of either party, the survivor agrees not to claim any part of the property of the other under the laws of descent, or otherwise; that all of the property belonging to either of the parties hereto may be disposed of by such party by will, free and clear to the claim of either party, and in case no will is made, the property of each of the parties at death shall descend to the heirs of the party, other than the survivor, and all property hereinafter acquired by either of said parties shall be either his or her said property, free from claim of the other.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said parties have hereunto freely set their hands this 3rd day of September, 1948, after consultation and advice with their respective attorneys.

| LA VONNE BONETIA STEVENSON,Plaintiff,vs.JESSE MILTON STEVENSON,Defendant. | JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE |

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court, in chambers at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, on the 7th day of September, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that due and legal personal service of summons had been had in this cause upon the defendant within the State of Idaho. That the defendant had appeared herein and filed his demurrer to the complaint of the plaintiff. That the said demurrer had been overruled by the court and the defendant given fifteen (15) days within which to answer the complaint of the plaintiff. That the time thus granted to the defendant to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff has expired and that no answer has been made or filed herein by or on behalf of the defendant. Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Lowe, attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to answer the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested.

The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being expressly waived by the plaintiff and being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and it appearing to the court from an affidavit made and filed herein in compliance with the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, that the defendant is not, and for more than six months last past, has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies, the court orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree as prayed in her complaint.

NOW THEREFORE, By virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, La Vonne Bonetia Stevenson, and the defendant, Jesse Milton Stevenson, be and they are hereby cancelled, annulled and held for naught, and the said persons are restored to the status of single persons.

That the care, custody and control of Keith Robert Stevenson and Gary Lynn Stevenson, the minor children issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, La Vonne Bonetia Stevenson, subject to the right of the defendant to visit the said children at reasonable times and to the right of the defendant to enjoy the companionship of the said children at such times and for such periods as the said plaintiff shall consent to and approve.

That the defendant, Jesse Milton Stevenson, shall pay to the plaintiff, La Vonne Bonetia Stevenson, for the support and maintenance of the said minor children issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, the sum of $100.00 per month, until the eldest of the said children shall have attained the age of 21 years, or the plaintiff shall have remarried. Upon the occurrence of either event above specified, the amount to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said children shall be reduced to the sum of $50.00 per month, and the said sum shall thereafter be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff until the youngest of the said children shall have attained the age of 21 years. The first payment of $100.00 shall be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff on or before the 1st day of October, 1948, and a like installment shall be paid on or before the 1st day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the plaintiff shall remarry or until the eldest of the said children shall have attained the age of 21 years, and upon the happening of either of the said events, the said sum to be paid shall be reduced to $50.00 per month and the said reduced amount shall be paid on or before the 1st day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the youngest of the said children shall have attained the age of 21 years.

That there is hereby awarded to and set over to the plaintiff, La Vonne Bonetia Stevenson, as her sole and separate property, the following described real estate in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> The South Forty-four (44) feet of Lot Two (2) and the North Forty-four (44) feet of Lot One (1) in Grandview Subdivision, as the same is platted in the official plat thereof, now of record in the office of theCounty Recorder, Cassia County, Idaho, together with all improvements thereon, and all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, free and clear from any and all demands or pretensions of the defendant, but subject to all indebtedness existing against the said premises and the improvements thereon.

HAROLD W. BARRETT, Plaintiff,

vs

FERN BARRETT, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 14th day of September, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it appearing to the Court that on the 20th day of August, 1948, the defendant executed an affidavit of voluntary appearance, acknowledging the receipt of a copy of the complaint; refusing to plead thereto; consenting to her default for failure to plead being entered; and subjecting herself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with this action; it appearing further that on the 24th day of August, 1948, the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to plead; more than twenty days having elapsed since the execution of said affidavit of voluntary appearance, and no further steps having been taken by the defendant herein; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to his residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are no children born of said marraige and no community property, and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction upon him of grevious mental suffering, are all true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does aroder, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, HAROLD W. BARRETT, and the said defendant, FERN BARRETT, be dissolved, and the same hereby is dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony.

Done in open court this 14th day of September, 1948.

| ILENE SOLOSABAL, Plaintiff, vs. VALENTINE SOLOSABAL, JR. Defendant. | DECREE OF DIVORCE |

This cause came regularly on for hearing in the court room of the above entitled court, in the court house at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 22nd day of September, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Love, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had executed and caused to be filed herein a duly verified instrument wherein and whereby he did acknowledge the receipt by him personally within the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, of a copy of the summons and complaint in said cause, and did waive his statutory time within which to plead to the said complaint and consent to the entry of his default for such failure to plead, and did consent to the submission of the said cause to the above entitled court without further notice to the defendant.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the court that an affidavit in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been filed herein by the plaintiff, wherein it appears that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States or its allies, and has not been in such service for more than six months last past.

Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Love, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his refusal to plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn in and examined, and the plaintiff rested. The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived as a matter of law by the defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Ilene Solosabal, and the defendant, Valentine Solosabal, Jr., be and the same are hereby cancelled, annulled, dissolved and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single person, wholly discharged and released from any duties and obligations owed to the defendant on account of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 15th day of September, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant William Ottiwell had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and that said defendant has filed an appearance in said action and has consented to the entry of default judgment against him and that said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein, the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 9th day of September, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, and that the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant on the 6th day of August, 1948, an original copy of which has been admitted as an exhibit herein, is hereby approved and confirmed by the court; that to secure the payment of the sum of $3088 due November 1, 1948 from the defendant to the plaintiff as provided in said property settlement agreement the plaintiff is hereby given a lien on the Southwest quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section 36, Township 6 South, Range 14, E. B. M. which lien shall remain thereon until said sum is paid in full; that the custody of the daughter of the plaintiff and the defendant namely Kay Dixon is hereby awarded to the plaintiff provided, however, that the defendant shall have the right to visit said daughter and to have her visit him at reasonable times and places; that the custody of the son of the plaintiff and defendant, namely Stephen Dixon is hereby awarded to the defendant provided, however, that the plaintiff shall have the right to visit said son and to have him visit her at reasonable times and places.

Dewayne W. Moore,

Defendant.

This cause came on regularly for trial, before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, upon the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to said Judge, and he hereby finds, that the defendant, Dewayne W. Moore, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and, having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, Dewayne W. Moore, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted and the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to said Judge for his consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, said Judge hereby finds and decides: That, for much more than one year immediately prior to the commencement of this action, the defendant wilfully failed, refused and neglected to provide, for the plaintiff, the common necessaries of life, and that, during said entire time, the defendant had the ability to provide, for the plaintiff, all of the common necessaries of life and had the money with which to do so; that there is, as the issue of the marriage between the plaintiff and defendant, one minor child, namely, Andrea D. Moore, a daughter, aged two years; that said minor child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff within Jerome County, State of Idaho; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that each and every allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct; and that the plaintiff is entitled to all the relief prayed for in her said complaint now on file herein; and, being now fully advised, both in the law and in the premises, said Judge hereby makes and enters his judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Elnora J. Moore, and the defendant, Dewayne W. Moore, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Andrea D. Moore, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Elnora J. Moore, and that the defendant, Dewayne W. Moore, be, and he is hereby, directed, required and ordered to pay to the plaintiff, Elnora J. Moore, the sum of fifty dollars each and every month for the support and maintenance of said minor child until such child shall have reached the age of eighteen years; and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the first of said payments shall be made on or before the 5th day of September, 1948, and that a like payment shall be made on or before the 5th day of each and every calendar month thereafter for and during the full time aforesaid.

Dated this 20th day of August, 1948.

The above matter came on for hearing on August 23, 1948 before the undersigned Judge at Jerome, Idaho:

The defendant appearing in person and by his attorney Henry M. Hall and the defendant not appearing in person or by attorney.

It appearing to the Court that legal service had been made of the summons to which was attached a copy of the complaint upon the defendant personally, in Jerome County, Idaho

That thereafter the defendant entered her appearance by executing an acknowledgement of service, Waiver of Statutory Time and Right to Appear and Plead to the Complaint and consented that an entry of her default could be made.

It further appearing that the clerk of the above named Court upon the application of the plaintiff's attorney entered the default of the defendant.

The Court then proceeded to hear the testimony of the plaintiff and his witness in support of the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint after swearing the plaintiff and his witness, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony, at the conclusion of such hearing it was the opinion of the Court that all of the material allegations set forth in the plaintiff's complaint were by him proven free and clear of any and all legal objections whatsoever: It further appearing to the Court that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action and proof of his residence were duly corroborated by other competent testimony.

It further appearing to the Court that there is no issue of said marriage or is there any personal or real property belonging to the plaintiff and defendant.

Owing to the fact that 20 days has not elapsed between time of the acceptance of acknowledgement of Waiver of Statutory time etc., the Court was of the opinion that the said defendant should be allowed 20 days from the time of her acceptance and acknowledgement of service of said summons and acknowlegement of Waiver of Statutory time etc., and the said matter was accordingly taken under advisement for such period of time in order to allow the defendant to enter her personal appearance in said action if she should so desire.

Now it appearing to the Court that the said defendant has made no further appearance either by person or attorney within the time required by this Court; therefore the said default of the defendant entered by the clerk of this Court is hereby confirmed and relief prayed for by the plaintiff is hereby granted.

WHEREFORE it is the judgment of this Court that the said marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same is hereby, by the Court dis-solved, and that each of the parties to the action are hereby restored to the status of a single unmarried person.

That the said defendant be restored and allowed to resume her former and maiden name that of Norma L. Paris.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and in the Province of Alberta, Dominion of Canada, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me in my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka and State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witnesses, the defendant appearing not; and the court after due examination of the records and files in said cause finds that the said defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint; that he has specifically waived his time for appearance therein; that the said defendant was not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act; and that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers; and it further appearing that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly made and entered;

WHEREUPON, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to said testimony free of all legal objection thereto, finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of her action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and the defendant were duly and regularly married on or about the 31st day of August, 1924, and ever since said time have been husband and wife;

The court finds that there was born the issue of said marriage the following minor children: Raymond Kaiser, age 16years; Betty Kaiser, age 15 years; Clara Kaiser, age 13 years; Kenneth Kaiser, age 11 years; Melvin Kaiser, age 10 years; Lavonne Kaiser, age 6 years; Robert Kaiser, age 6 years; Shirley Kaiser, age 5 years.

The court further finds that the community property consisted only of household goods, one cow and chickens, all of which are in the possession of the plaintiff herein, and the court finds that prior to the filing of the action, the said defendant had waived any and all claims to said personal property and that the same became the separate property and estate of the plaintiff.

The court finds that the plaintiff is a proper person to have the care, control and custody of said minor children, granting unto the defendant the right to see said minor cildren at all reasonable times and places.

The court finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint it is a proper matter for entry of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the court being fully advised in the premises makes and enters its decree as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Mary Kaiser, and the defendant, David Kaiser, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Mary Kaiser, and against the defendant, David Kaiser.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to have and to hold as her separate and individual property and estate the following described personal property, to-wit: All household goods, one cow and chickens.

It is further decreed that the said plaintiff be and is hereby granted the care, control and custody of the minor children, Raymond Kaiser, Betty Kaiser, Clara Kaiser, Kenneth Kaiser, Melvin Kaiser, Lavonne Kaiser, Robert Kaiser and Shirley Kaiser, subject to the right of the defendant to see said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

John E. Clark,

Defendant.

Action No. 2583.

Filed and entered
Sept. 20, 1948
Lillian Wilson
Clerk.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 20 day of September, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, John E. Clark, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon him in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of the defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 24th day of April, 1948, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner during the time they so lived together as husband and wife, all as alleged in the complaint herein; that such acts on the part of the defendant were without cause on the part of the plaintiff, and caused the plaintiff great mental suffering and anguish and was causing her physical suffering; that there is no child the issue of such marriage; and that there is no property, either real or personal, belonging to said parties as community property; that the name of the plaintiff prior to her marriage to the defendant was Ida M. Daniel and plaintiff desires to have such former name restored to her herein.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that they should be restored to the status of unmarried persons. The Court also finds that the former name of Ida M. Daniel should be restored to the plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Ida M. Clark, and the Defendant, John E. Clark, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be and she hereby is restored to the name of Ida M. Daniel.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard this day before the undersigned District Judge. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Parry, Keenan, Robertson and Daly, his attorneys. The defendant did not appear in person or by attorney, and it appearing to the court that subsequent to the filing of the plaintiff's complaint herein the defendant voluntarily appeared by Edward E. Babcock, her attorney, and demurred to the plaintiff's complaint, and that the defendant then, by and through her attorney, appeared and withdrew her said demurrer and declined to plead further herein, consenting that her default might be entered, and that pursuant to the withdrawal of said demurrer and said consent, the default of the defendant was duly entered in the premises herein according to law. The court then received testimony and evidence offered by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint; and now the matter being submitted to the court for decision, the court finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff are true and correct, that the property settlement agreement made by the parties and admitted in evidence as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" is in all respects fair and equitable and that the same ought to be approved by the court, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the decree of divorce and other relief prayed for in his com plaint.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Gladys L. This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court of Twin Falls, Twin Falls county, state of Idaho, in the court room thereof upon this 3rd day of September 1948. The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Guy. L. Kinney, and the defendant, Richard Sparks, not appearing either in person or by any attorney and it appearing to the Court that the said defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and a copy of the complaint in this action and that twenty days have elapsed since said service was made, and the defendant neither appearing in person or by an attorney or filing any answer of demurrer and default of said defendant, Richard Sparks, in the above entitled case having been duly and regularly entered herein according to the law. It is ORDERED that said entry of default be and it is hereby approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiffs's testimony as to her residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties; that there is one child born of said marriage; that there is no community property; and that the defendant has been guilty of willful neglect and non support of the plaintiff for more than a year previous to the filing of this complaint, all of which are true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of willful neglect and non-support, that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the minor child, and that the custody of said child should be awarded to her.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, Lois Jean Sparks, and the said defendant, Richard Sparks, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved; that the said parties be and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the custody of the minor child of said marriage, namely, Eva Jean Sparks, be and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 24th day of September, 1948, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and defendant appeared by her counsel, Marshall Chapman, Esquire. DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Charles E. Winstead, Judge of the above-entitled court on the 12th day of October, 1948. Jess Hawley, of Messrs. Hawley & Hawley, attorneys for the Plaintiff, represented the Plaintiff through the trial. There was no representation or appearance, either in person or by attorney or by the filing of any answer or other instrument on behalf of or for the Defendant. Default of the Defendant for failure to appear and answer the Complaint of the Plaintiff was thereupon duly and regularly entered after legal and sufficient proof and showing that proper service of the summons and complaint had been made upon the Defendant as required by law and the order of this court.

Whereupon, testimony was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff, and the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and to the facts, does hereby find as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of his Complaint herein a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That there were no children born of the said marriage, and no community property acquired by the parties hereto.

III

That said Defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever.

IV

That the said Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his Complaint by reason of the testimony submitted and the corroboration thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, the court being fully advised as to the law and the facts does HEREBY ORDER AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

I

That the Plaintiff, Herbert F. Marth, is entitled to, and is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the said Defendant, Lucille N. V

That the Separation and Property Division Agreement, a copy of which is marked "Exhibit A" filed herein is just and equitable and should be approved.

I

That Plaintiff, Alma Balsiger, is entitled to, and she is hereby granted, a full and absolute decree of divorce from the Defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status

WHEREUPON, Evidence duly corroborated as required by law was introduced by the plaintiff, in which it appears to the Court that the allegations of plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by the testimony, free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint; and the case being closed, and the law in the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court makes

The above-entitle cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the I5th day of October, I948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced f rom the defendant.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge, this 1st day of October, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

JEROME J. COHAN,

Plaintiff,

-vs.-

MARGUERITE COHAN,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the judges of the above entitled court, in the Chambers of this court in the Bannock County Court House in Pocatello, Idaho, this 7th day of October, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and also by his attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho. The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney, and thereupon the court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings, had in this case, and finds that the summons has been served on the defendant as provided for by the law of the State of Idaho, as is shown by the proof of service annexed to the "Another Summons", on file herein; that the time within which the defendant may appear and plead to the complaint has expired, and that the defendant has failed to appear. That an affidavit is on file showing that the defendant is not in the military service, and that the court has ordered the Clerk to enter a clerk's default, and that a clerk's default has been entered as provided by law. That the court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action and over the subject matter thereof. That thereupon the plaintiff presented his evidence, both oral and documentary, and the Court having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and his corroborating witness, and having considered the same, finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true; that the plaintiff, is now, and continuously has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, for over six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in the complaint.

That the property settlement heretofore entered into between the parties to this action, a copy of which is annexed to the complaint, was submitted to the court, and was by the court examined, and considered, and said property settlement is found to be fair and reasonable, and is hereby approved.

NOW, THEREFORE, the court having heard the evidence and having considered the same and being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Jerome J. Cohan, and the defendant Marguerite Cohan, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and set aside, and that each of the said parties be, and each hereby is restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the property settlement entered into between the parties to this action by a contract dated November 27th, 1946, and duly executed by the parties to this action be, and the same hereby is, approved.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff pay to the defendant for her support and maintenance, the sum of ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED TWENTY 00/100 ($1,820.00) DOLLARS annually, payable at the rate of THIRTY-FIVE ($35.00) DOLLARS a week, such weekly payments to commence on the 9th day of October, 1948.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That said annual payment for the support and maintenance of the defendant, above made by this Court, and made in harmony with said agreement, is based upon the plaintiff's current annual income with which the defendant was familiar at the time the said agreement was entered into, to-wit: the sum of $5750.00. And it is further provided that should the plaintiff's annual income be increased, to the extent of One Thousand 00/100 ($1,000.00) Dollars per annum, then it is ordered that the allowance for the defendant is to be correspondingly increased, to the extent of one-third (1/3) of any such increase not exceeding One Thousand 00/100 ($1,000.00) Dollars, per annum.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED There is set aside to the defendant, as her sole and separate personal property, all of the household goods and furnishings of the apartment formerly occupied by the parties and known as #3-B in the premises 1910 University Avenue, Borough of Bronx, City and State of New York, as such personal property existed at the date of their above mentioned agreement, viz: on November 17, 1946. That said property, together with the savings account of the parties to this action in the name of the defendant, as it stood on said November 27, 1946, shall be retained by the defendant as her own separate property free of any claim thereto of the plaintiff against any part thereof.

IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant is decreed said property, in harmony with the terms of the said property settlement so made between the parties to this action and said personal property is decreed to the defendant in lieu of any and all other claims or provisions for her support and maintenance, and in lieu of any alimony.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That in the event the defendant remarries all payments above provided for shall cease and terminate from the date of such remarriage of said defendant.

Judgment and decree entered this 7th day of October, 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the court sitting without a jury in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the day of October, 1948. O. R. Baum, attorney at law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff and cross defendant, Clark R. Paulsen, and Merrill and Merrill, attorneys at law, appeared for and on behalf of the defendant and cross complainant, Alyce M. Paulsen.

The plaintiff refused to offer any evidence in support of his complaint and evidence was introduced for and on behalf of the defendant and cross complainant in support of her cross complaint and no evidence was introduced in support of answer to said cross complaint. From the evidence introduced for and on behalf of the cross complainant the court finds that all the material allegations of the cross complaint are true and correct and that a decree of divorce should be denied the plaintiff on his complaint and a decree of divorce should be entered in favor of the defendant and cross complainant against the plaintiff and cross defendant for the fault of the said cross defendant; and

It further appearing to the court and the court finds that the parties have heretofore entered into a property settlement whereby the community property belonging to said parties has been divided between said parties in the following manner:

> One new 1947 Nash Automobile was given to the plaintiff and cross defendant upon the plaintiff and cross defendant paying to the defendant and cross complainant $900.00 out of which the cross complainant is to pay her own costs and expenses.

which said property settlement is hereby approved by the court; and

It further appearing to the court and the court finds that findings of facts and conclusions of law have been specifically waived in writing.

The court being fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff take nothing by reason of his complaint; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the cross complainant Alyce M. Paulsen and the cross defendant Clark R. | Lillie E. Hahn, Plaintiff, vs. Arthur C. Hahn, Defendant. | Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Decree of Divorce: |

This cause came on for hearing on the first day of October, 1948, at chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho, when the plaintiff was represented by his counsel, Louise Keefer and Woodrow A. Wilkinson.

The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel and the default of the defendant was duly entered. The records show that he was served with process and that he has failed to appear or plead in the cause.

On the conclusion of the hearing the Court took the matter under advisement and on consideration the Court now finds the facts and the law and conclusions as follows:

Findings of Fact

1. That for more than one year prior to the commencement of said action the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho.

2. That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Twin Falls, Idaho, October 18th, 1917, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife.

3. That two children have been born as the issue of said marriage, Elmer Hahn, who was killed in the service of his country, and Clyde Hahn, who is of legal age.

4. That on or about the first day of June, 1945, and more than one year preceding the commencement of this action, the said defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, wilfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff, and ever since has, and still continues to so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff, and to live separate and apart from her, without any sufficient cause, and without any reason and against her will, and without her consent. That said defendant has also failed to provide plaintiff with any support since said first day of June, 1945. That the plaintiff believes the said defendant is now living in Long Beach, California.

5. That the parties own no property of any kind.

6. The Court finds generally that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1. That the Court has jurisdiction to decide herein the case.

2. That the allegations of the said complaint are supported by unimpeachable evidence sufficient to support a decree of divorce.

3. That a decree of divorce should be entered herein dissolving the bonds of matrimony between the parties.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court makes and enters herein its decree of divorce and judgment as follows, to wit:

It is Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Lillie E. Hahn and Arthur C. Hahn, the defendant, be, and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

* * * *

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in this Court in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled District Court on the 22nd day of October, 1948; CALDWELL AND ALEXANDERSON appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and defendant having failed to appear herein, in person or by counsel, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said Complaint within the time required by law, or at all, and his default having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and testified;

AND THE COURT having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action, and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Winnemucca, Nevada, on the 29th day of December, 1945, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now, and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of Washington, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for Plaintiff,

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 18th day of October, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Ross Gill, was duly and regularly served with process herein by publication of another summons, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon the defendant, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife approximately two years preceding the commencement of this action and have since that time continuously lived separate and apart and are now living separate and apart; that for more than one year preceding the commencement of this action, the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned plaintiff and ever since has and so continues to desert and abandon the plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her without sufficient cause and without any reason and against her will; that there was born as the issue of said marriage one child now of the age of 11 years named Lataine Gill, which child has been with the plaintiff all of the said time and plaintiff desires to have said child awarded to her herein; that there is no property, real or personal in the State of Idaho or elsewhere, belonging to the parties to this action.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant on grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant, the Court also finds that the child of said marriage, Lataine Gill, should be awarded to the plaintiff herein.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Melva Gill, and the defendant, Ross Gill, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the care, custody, control and education of the child of said marriage, Lataine Gill, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit such child at reasonable times and places.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 18th day of October, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, John Hansen, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon him in the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises finds: That all of the material allegations of the plaintiff, as set forth in her complaint, are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff, is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to cohabit and live together as husband and wife on or about the 3rd day of September, 1948, and ever since have lived and are now living separate and apart; that the defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel manner and has caused her grevious mental suffering, humiliation and pain to such an extent that her health was impaired; that plaintiff was forced to and did work to support herself and to provide for herself and her husband the common necessaries of life, including food and clothing; which working out began about March 4th, 1947 and continued to the date of the separation as herein stated, notwithstanding the fact that the defendant was able at all times to earn sufficient for their reasonable requirements; that the defendant has spent a large part of his time in drinking establishments where liquors are sold, repeatedly spending days and parts of days at such places and neglecting his work and while he ordinarily did not become what is commonly known as drunk, he usually did become more or less intoxicated and often times remained out at such places until late at night; that such drinking caused the defendant to neglect his work and crops and lessen his earning capacity; that defendant has required plaintiff to live in a very dilapidated and run-down shack which endangered her health and defedant refused to do anything about repairing such building; that defendant was constantly complaining that plaintiff was not doing her share and was not a good wife for him; that the defendant's only interest in the plaintiff was what work he could get out of her; that he treated plaintiff coolly, other interests occupying his thoughts and attention; that he ignored her in such a pointed manner in the presence of others that it made plaintiff realize that he was not interested in her and treated her in public in a manner that caused her great humiliation; that all of such acts on the part of the defendant were without cause or blame by the plaintiff; that there was no child the issue of said marriage; that the property rights of the parties to this action have been taken care of and settled by and between themselves.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff.

That plaintiff's former name was Elsie C. Putnam and that she desires to have such name restored to her and that same should be so restored to her.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Elsie C. Hansen, and the defendant, John Hansen, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, restored to the name of Elsie C. Putnam.

Reva Wilks, Plaintiff, No. 10602

vs. DECREE.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of the said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared and was present in person and was represented by her counsel, H. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear in person or by counsel.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the court from an examination of the record and files in said action that the summons and a copy of the complaint herein were served upon the defendant personally at Shoshone County, Idaho, by the sheriff of said county on August 31, 1948; and that at the same time the defendant was served personally with a copy of the restraining order and injunction made and issued herein. It further appeared that the defendant had failed and refused to appear in said action and to demur to or to answer the complaint within the time allowed by law; and that the default of the defendant has been entered herein and endorsed upon the complaint.

The plaintiff and a witness in her behalf were called, sworn and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises and of the facts of this action, and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived herein by the said default of the defendant, the court now makes and renders the following judgment and decree, to wit:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Reva Wilks, and the defendant, Richard Allen Wilks, be and the same hereby are wholly dissolved and annulled, and that the said parties be, and they hereby are, restored to the state of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the maiden name of the plaintiff, to wit, Reva E. Clark, be and the same hereby is restored to the plaintiff, with the right to the immediate and continued use thereof.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT THE PLAINTIFF is the owner and entitled to the exclusive possession of the following articles of personal property, to wit: One Dormeyer electric mixer, one electric toaster, one electric waffle iron and one Admiral table model radio-phonograph.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the injunction and restraining order which was served upon the defendant, Richard Allen Wilks, at the time of the service of the summons on August 31, 1948, is hereby made permanent and shall be in full force and effect henceforth, except that it is hereby recognized that the defendant has delivered to the plaintiff the articles of personal property claimed by her in her complaint.

DECREE

Entered OCT 22 1948

This cause came on regularly for trial, before the above entitled Court, at the Court Room thereof, in the County Court House, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, upon the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, Kenneth Snelson, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and, having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, Kenneth Snelson, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted and, the evidence being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and after due deliberation, the Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty and has inflicted grievous mental suffering upon her by his acts and conduct; that there are, as the issue of the marriage between the plaintiff and defendant, three minor children, namely, Keith Snelson, a son, aged 16 years, Jerald Snelson, a son, aged 13 years, and Deanna Snelson, a daughter, aged 8 years; that said minor children, and each of them, are now in the care and custody of the plaintiff within Twin Falls County, State of Idaho; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, control and education of said minor children, and each of them; that the sum of $35.00 per month is a suitable allowance for the support and maintenance of each of said minor children, and that the defendant is capable of and able to pay the sum of $35.00 per month for the support and maintenance of each of said minor children. That each and all of the property, hereinafter described, is the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, and that the plaintiff is entitled to have said property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, set aside, awarded, assigned, transferred, set over, conveyed and decreed to her, as her sole and separate property; and that each and every allegation in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct. And, being now fully advised in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Carlyne Snelson, and the defendant, Kenneth Snelson, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and education of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Keith Snelson, Jerald Snelson and Deanna Snelson, and each of them, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Carlyne Snelson, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Kenneth Snelson, be, and he is hereby, directed, ordered and required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of thirty-five dollars per month, each and every month hereafter, for the support and maintenance of each of said minor children, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the first of said payments, amounting to the sum of one hundred five dollars, shall be made within five days from the date hereof, and that a like payment shall be made on or before the first day of each succeeding calendar month thereafter.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property, hereinafter described, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, assigned, set aside, transferred, set over, conveyed, awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, Carlyne Snelson, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Kenneth Snelson, therein or thereto. Said property is now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and is particularly described as follows:

> One bed-room set; one washing machine; one davenport; miscellaneous household goods, furniture and fixtures; one 1935 Chevrolet sedan automobile, Motor No. 5028825, Serial No. 6EA047816; and all other community property of the parties hereto.
